“ I am very grateful for every memory I have with Grandma Irene. I remember how excited I was every time I received a letter or card from her throughout my few years on this earth. I was lucky enough to visit her twice recently and both times she gave me a feeling of pride and humility for one who has accumulated so much knowledge over the span of her life. We will miss her greatly but will see her again. Until then it is well with my soul.

“ Grandma, we love and miss you beyond what words can explain. One day we'll be united... one day!

“ Irene was a kind gentle spirit who loved her family, her flowers, and offering home baked cookies to whoever dropped in. I knew her when I was in high school and would be one of those who would be there quite often visiting her daughter Jeanie. We should celebrate her life as one of God`s most gracious loving people. Sincerely,

“ I love my mother, but I would never hold her on earth. Today she's walking on streets of gold, by the chrystal sea, next to the throne of God. No nore diabetes, no more stoke, she doesn't even need her glasses.

“ My great grandma Irene. I am given a heart of happiness anytime her name approaches my day. To know now that shes in heaven accompanied by her loved ones in wait, I see she joins them joyfully, alongside in wait for us. I am overabundantly thankful to The Lord for her patient and full efforted love in raising my grandmother, who for my brothers and me, became the blessing of mother to love us. I will miss my grandma Irene. I'll think of her often from these days on, and think of that smile she always had that I will see again some day far away. We love you grandma Irene... -Erik
