“ My former wife, Lois Jean Mayhew, would like to have me extend respectful considerations to the family in light of Mr. Mazzele's passing. Lois became friends and school chums with Wanda during their teen years in Warners, NY. Lois also has mentioned Lena and Marco (Joe) in passing conversation of late. She'd like to express her sadness for the death of a wonderful personality and a well-appreciated family man. Wanda, Lena, and Marco (Joe) please feel free to contact me (through the hotlink) for Lois' phone number so she may be able to express her feelings first-hand.

“ Gramps....There are so many words to describe you..I think the best one that fits you is You were the best Granfather anyone could ask for. Thankyou for the memories we shared together. When I think of them it puts a great big smile on my face. You lived your life to the fullest you loved to dance, crack jokes, wear the boots even though it was 100 degrees outside. Until we meet again. I will miss you! Love your Granddaughter, Sandy Arnold Searle
