“ If I still miss you so much after all this time, not haven't seen you for many years before your passing, I can only imagine how Jessica and your parent's feel. You were so special, and I will always have an ache in my heart because you aren't on this plane.

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. While I did not know your loved one personally, we have all been affected by the grief death causes. Revelation 21:3-5 promises that soon death will be eliminated. John 11:28,29 further assures us that we can look forward to seeing our loved ones again. How we look forward to that day! I hope these scriptures serve as a comfort to you and your family as they have me.

“ I felt it necessary to fix a typo I made on my message I left previously. When I spoke of Jeremy's favorite things I mentioned his kinex toys. Those toys are in fact his construx toys. It was important to voice my error knowing that Jeremy became sarcastically disturbed when anyone mis-titled his things. Love to you all, God Bless!

Laura Hensleigh - August 30, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy. I met Jeremy and Jessica on a photo shoot in Tampa. That meeting made a deep and lasting impression - I am so sorry for your loss. Jeremy was a kind and talented person that knew exactly how to make others look and feel like superstars. His light will be missed. You are in my prayers.

“ Jessica, I'm so sorry this happened. I was so looking forward to your future with Jeremy. I'm sure he would want you and all of us to be at peace over this someday. I know its hard for you to see past this right now but I also know he would want you to be happy and feel loved. We all love you very much too. Dad

“ Kathy and John, My name is Mary Lee Walawender and I attend Grace Assembly of God. I had the privilege of sharing in Jeremy's Funeral. What a fine young man; God certainly gave him many gifts and you, as parents, must have encouraged him to develop those gifts. What a tribute to you! I am writing because both my parents committed suicide. They were devoted Christians and also very artistic; giving much to their community and church. Suicide is a painful journey for families that does not end but we have hope and the Lord to be our refuge and strength when no one understands. As your journey begins, I am offering an ear and daily prayers. Love, Mary Lee (436-5951)

“ John, Kathy and family. There aren't words to express such sorrow but I hope you can find some solace in the belief that Hilda and Ralph are looking after Jeremy now. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Brian Cunningham - August 03, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Jessica, I,too,loved him. He was my 'grandson'. I remember his smile when his mouth made a little heart shape and how very much he loved you. There are no words or hugs that can ease you pain but know that you are loved and Angels surround you to help you through this unbelievably tragic time..Jeremy's at peace now. We're ALL here to support you and help you forever.. All My Love to you, Beauty, G-ma xoxoxoxoxoxoxoxoxo

Llewellyn Locke - August 01, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ John and Kathy, My prayers are with you and yours during this tragic time. I just don't have the words to say that can comfort you. I admired him and loved him as my own. I was always bragging on his talent. He was smart, funny, very intelligent and had a heart of gold.. It's very easy to see why my granddaughter loved him so much.. My God comfort you and your family.. You are in my prayers.. God Bless You, Llewellyn

Llewellyn Locke - August 01, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ John, Kathy and family Our sympathies for your sad lost of Jeremy. Our thoughts and prayers are with you in this most difficult of times.

“ John & Kathy Linda and I are so sorry for your loss. Although we had not seen Jeremy in quite a while we enjoyed seeing pictures and listening to your updates on his life. We know you have your faith, family and friends to support you. Our deepest sympathy Linda & Mark

Mark & Linda Cole - August 01, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ My Dear Jessica, I was on the coast of Maine when the death of Jeremy finally reached me. My heart is broken for you and Jeremy's family. I hope you know that I would have been by your side to give you comfort... in Tampa and in New York if I had gotten the news of his passing in time. Jeremy was a wonderful young man and Uncle John and I will miss him. He was always a lively addition to all our family holiday get togethers. You are greatly loved. Uncle John and I are here for you. Let us know if you need anything. Love, Aunt Candy

Candy Smith - July 31, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear John & Kathy ~ Dennis and I were heartsick when we heard this tragic news. I know there are no words. While we didn't know Jeremy, it's easy to see what a beautiful young man he was, with such a full life. Be proud as parents of this blessing of a son you created. May our Heavenly Father, in His grace and mercy, bring you all through this day by day. Remember that the Hands that created Jeremy are the Hands that now hold him. With much love, The Miesners

“ Hey Jess, I hate having to even be writing this, I wish it was just a bad dream. I can't think of more to say that hasn't already been said. My heart is with you, and Jeremy's family. Wish I was back there right now. As much Love as I can give from the west coast, Casey.

Casey Hendrix - July 30, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Jessica I am so very sorry for your loss and can't find the words to express my sadness about what you must be experiencing at this time. It is unimaginable to lose someone so vital and young with whom you were building a future. Being loved is the most precious thing of all and Jeremy loved you very much. You are precious to so many people so hold tight to those who are surrounding you with their love.

“ John & Kathy, We were deeply saddened to hear of your loss. There can be few greater sorrows than having a child leave before us but we pray that God's peace, presence and comfort will be with you in a mighty way. He is a good God and we know that your faith in Him will sustain you during this difficult time. Blessings, Don & Corinne Ibbitson

Don Ibbitson - July 30, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ We are praying that God will be very real to you now and in the days to follow. Know that this church is holding your family up in prayer. We love you and miss you.

Jessie Slater - July 28, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Jeremy was a wonderful, beautiful individual. I feel blessed to have known him, and the world is better for him having been in it. My thoughts are with you Jess, and with the Flanders family, may you find peace during this difficult time.

Jen Kelley - July 28, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Our Hearts and Prayers go out to you Jessica and the entire Flanders family from his other family 2020 Companies. He was a good guy and will be missed. Please contact us if there's anything we can do to help support you all in this time of grief.

Mike LeMay - July 28, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Jeremy was one of my students at the International Academy of Design and Technology. I had the opportunity to teach courses for Jeremy and his talent was impressive. His ability to create art, design and photography was inspiring to me and also to his fellow classmates. On behalf of the Academy family, please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. Jeremy was an amazing source of talent. He will be truly missed.

“ We are so sorry for your loss. We will keep you in our thoughts and prayers.

Mark and Jessica Keane - July 28, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ To my wonderful family... I felt it only necessary to add a few words myself. Jeremy is loved by more people then he ever thought possible, and he sees that now. I may only be Jacob's girlfriend (of 5 1/2 years) but Jeremy was more than a friend, he was my brother. To everyone that knew this beautifully talented, bright loving man, you know the world won't be the same without our Jeremy. But remember the things he loved Batman, his art, those doctor bags, his silly lil' kinex toys, the computer (and anything that is mechanical), his family, and most importantly Jessica. I never saw someone love another person as hard as he loves you. My heart and my prayers are with anyone and everyone affected by these hard times. God Bless, and today/every day make sure you let the people you hold closest that you love them.

Laura Hensleigh - July 28, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Cathy & John, I don't know if you'll remember me. I'm Rebekah's mother. My heart goes out to you. Please know that you and your family are in my prayers. Love in the Lamb, Michele Jahn

Michele Jahn - July 28, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Flanders family and Jessica, We haven't met but in high school, Jer and I spent quite a bit of time together. He was one of the greatest guys I've ever had the privilege of knowing. Amazingly talented, incredibly sweet and with a sense of humor that was always a little left of center, it's hard to imagine that he's gone. I hope that you can take some comfort from that fact that, though his time here was much too short, he touched more lives than I think even he could have imagined. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Sincerely, Christine Gillis

Christine L Gillis - July 28, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Jessica, My deepest sympathy to you, the Flanders' family and friends of Jeremy. My sincere thoughts and prayers are with you as you face this tremendous loss. If there is anything you need, please let me know. Jeannette
