“ I still miss the Thanksgiving dinners at Uncle Gifford's and Aunt Mildred's. They both made the day special for all (and there was a crowd) of us. I am thankful for them.

“ I will always remember Aunt Mildred and her sweet smile and generosity. We always looked forward to her visits when we were kids and she was Mom's best friend and sister she didn't have. Those Thanksgiving dinners at Mildred and Gifford's house were always a time to look forward to. There wasn't a lot of room with the whole gang there but everyone enjoyed Mildred's turkey in that bi-ig roaster and her wonderful fruit salad. She was a woman of few words bu her love went into everything she did. God bless her. He just got another angel
