“ My deepest sympathy for your loss. I only learned of Oscar's death while reading the SUNY Plattsburgh alumni magazine. He was a close friend in college (we met freshman year while living in the same dorm) and a great guy, though we lost touch over the years. I know the holidays can be a very difficult time, and I wish you the best at this time. Pam Perrone

“ It is so hard to believe that I have lost a childhood friend. All I can wish now is that we had the time to get to know each other and our respective families later on in life. If you should need anything, please contact me. I can only hope we can continue to communicate as time goes by. I wish to express my heartfelt sympathy to you and the family. God Bless,

“ Deb, My heart is breaking for you. It is senseless to try and express the depth of sorrow I feel at the loss of Oscar because there are no words to describe my sadness. Your entire family were pillars of strenght and love when Dad passed away, and I will always remember how kind Oscar was to Dad and Pat. My thoughts are with you, Sam, Tara, and with Robin and Pam as well. I hope Oscar, Tom and our Dad's are giving each other a big fat high five right now. That conjurs up quite an image, doesn't it? With much love, Kathy (Tracy) Lacey
