Survivors include her parents Ed and Natalie Murphy of Camillus; her sister, Pam (John) Carroll of Camillus; a brother, D'Arcy Murphy of Daytona Beach, FL; a brother Dexter (Pearl) Murphy and nephews Ryan and Brendan of Stonington, CT. “ to the Murphy family, I just to say how much fun we had together from elementary school thru high school at West Genny. I'm sorry our friendship never continued as our lives took separate journeys, and even more sorry I did not know of Pat's illness. I would have liked to rekindled our lost friendship and tried to help her through this difficult time. My so sincerest condolences to you and your family.

“ Dear Aunt Natalie and Uncle Edmund, In our grandmother's room, we memorized this poem, and years later Patty recited it to me as she planted a tree in the front yard of my first home. I think that I shall never see A poem lovely as a tree. A tree whose hungry mouth is prest Against the earth's sweet flowing breast; A tree that looks at God all day And lifts her leafy arms to pray; A tree that may in Summer wear A nest of robins in her hair; Upon whose bosom snow has lain; Who intimately lives with rain. Poems are made by fools like me, But only God can make a tree. ~Joyce Kilmer, "Trees," 1914 Patty and I were more than cousins, we were friends. I remember the laughter and the love we shared as children, and the crazy adventures we shared as young adults in her little VW Bug. Patty faced her battle with courage and steadfastness. I am grateful that today she is with God. I will miss her, her laughter, her constant curiosity, her dignity and her grace. I love you both!

“ Pat will always be in our hearts, we loved her spirit and enthusiasm for life. We knew her in Potsdam and in Syracuse. She was our bridesmaid in 1970 and we tried to stay in touch with her, but our paths diverged. She'll always be alive and well and smiling in our minds.

“ I am deeply saddened on the passing of Pat. I knew Pat when she taught at Lynbrook Elementary in Virginia. She always showed enthusiasm and dedication in teaching children reading. She was truly a gem. The teaching world has lost one of its greatest assets. My sympathy to all of her family and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy to Pat's family. I worked with Pat at Lynbrook School in Fairfax and remember her smile and long stride as she walked quickly between classrooms. Every year Pat would receive beautiful roses on her birthday, and the office staff would both tease and envy her. One year she arrived at my home on my birthday with roses for me, saying she knew I enjoyed hers and she wanted me to have my own. It's a wonderful memory of a special person.

“ I am deeply saddened by the death of Pat. I had the pleasure of working with her at Lynbrook School and lost touch when she changed professions. I often would think of her and what she might be doing. She was such a kind and generous person and touched the lives of so many young children. I will always remember what a wonderful cook she was (have some of her receipes), her blue VW, her reading room filled with books, her beautiful hair and loving spirit and her endless friendship. My prayers go out to her family in the loss of their dear Pat. God Bless, Lori “ Murphy Family, We may have lost Pat through our eyes but never in our memories. I didn't know Pat for very long but boy did we click together we had alot of laughs and good times. I could get Pat to do anything but let me toss the papers to the trash, I told her God better have a big place for you and all those darn papers, she would laugh. Pat was a special lady.
