“ Mom and Dad and The Creech and Helen enjoyed a longstanding, special friendship going back to 1963 when we moved into Orchard Village. So many great family and personal memories of The Creech, Helen (Mrs. Schmitt) and growing up with Bob Jr and Ginger. The hockey games at the Coliseum, getting called for elbowing by the referee (i.e. the Cheech), the Friday fish fries at Wheelers, their trips to Saratoga and the cookouts throughout the summer following the guys rounds of golf at Westvale. My dad and Cheech were always pulling pranks on each other. One summer, my parents were traveling out of town and my brother and I stayed at the Schmitt's. When my parents got home, there was a bill from The Cheech. Room and board - $12, food - $14, Ketchup -$119. Unlike the thousand dinner bills they shared, I'm not sure that bill got paid. As my dad and The Creech liked their cigars, providing they were a great deal, I pray they are once again enjoying a great smoke and lots of laughs together. To quote my brother Shawn, he was a great person, a true classic! God bless The Cheech!

“ One of my dad's very dearest friends. Bob and Helen and my parents Chris and Patsy George played golf all the time. And on Friday nights they'd play bridge at Westvale. My dad called Bob (Chi Chi). I never knew why. He was a star to the George boys who always had a ball when the family's got together. He will be missed by all. Love to Helen, Bob jr and Ginny. Rob and Mary George.

“ Thanks Rob. Such kind words. Your Dad called him Chi Chi or Cheech because Dad always was a good putter, but when he made a putt of importance or of good length he would imitate the sword performance with his putter like the retired PGA great and showman-Chi Chi Rodriguez.
