“ My deepest and sincere condolences to Bob's family.

I never got to meet my 1st cousin and a few years ago I had called but my message was not received or gotten mixed up. I regret so much as now the opportunity is gone. I have met his sister Beverly a few times and yet to meet his brother Steven including all his Denmark siblings. We know that 1959 was a tragic year for the Scott and Kelly family. I really wished circumstances were different so that we could rejoice and celebrate his life.

My heart and my sympathy goes out to his friends and family.

Robert will remain in our hearts forever.

“ Richard,
thank you so much for taking the time to comment and express your sympathies to my family and I. Although some days are easier than others for us, will still try to find comfort in knowing he is no longer in pain. However, the selfish part of us wishes he was still here; to hold, to talk too or to just hear his distinctive voice. He is surely missed.

“ Hey Dad...it's me again...I just wanted you to know that I was thinking about you. Every time I think of you I get this heavy feeling in my heart and I can feel the tears building up. My then I have to tell myself...he's no longer in pain or no longer hurting. Sometimes it helps other times...not so much. We love and miss you soooo much! Until next time xoxo

“ Hey Dad,

SO hard to believe a month has passed us already since you left. For the most part everyone is doing okay...some days are better than others. But we have each other to lean on. Trying to convince Mom to come stay with me so she is not alone...but the memories you two share in that old house are far greater than any, so she doesn't want to leave.

Well, Dad we love and miss you so much! Oh before I forget...Becky is having a boy!! LOL I know you would be so happy (I feel it in my heart) Until next time...xoxo

“ Hey Dad,
So yesterday was pretty crazy...Mom ended up taking Jalen to the ER because he was having chest pains; So after I left work I went right over to Upstate. Everything turned out to be just fine he has acid reflux which was causing the chest pains. But he's okay.

Mom's doing okay...Jalen and Nathan have been keeping her busy. We have an appt on Friday to meet with the Hope for the Bereaved as a family. Hopefully, it will help seeing I can't sleep and my mood is like a light switch...one minute I find comfort in knowing you're no longer in pain but then my heart get really heavy. So I think talking to someone hopefully will help.

Well, I'm going to get back to work. We love and miss you! Until next time...xoxo

Just thinking of ya...xoxo

Gchartier8 - August 08, 2017 at 01:03 PM

“ Hey Dad,

Writing to you everyday seems to help but only during the time I'm writing. Then once I get back to my regular routine I'm left with a heavy heart. I just have so many unanswered questions. And I'm blaming myself...like maybe if I just went over there or maybe if I forced you to go to the Doctors that Thursday we had dinner together...Maybe you would still be here :-)

I wonder what you were thinking at that moment. It hurts knowing you were alone (besides Uncle Mikey) but I can't sleep as I am left with those questions. Can you send me a message letting me know everything is fine that you're fine...something...anything. I love you...until next time xoxo

“ Hey Dad...so hard to believe I'm 39 years old today! I'm trying to figure out where all the time went. It's funny because when I was 13 I would tell everyone I was 16. Then when I was 16 I wanted to be 18. When 18 came and went I wanted to be 21. To only turn 21 and want to be 13 again. Lol
You always said, "Don't grow before your time...it'll come and when it does you'll wish to be young again.
"The only thing I wish for now is; I wish you were here. I wish I could hear your voice...hug you...

Gchartier8 - August 04, 2017 at 01:51 PM

“ Hey Dad,
Today is tough! I woke up knowing; as tomorrow approaches and knowing you're not here for my birthday is going to be hard emotionally. Through the years although we never had much as far as money goes...you and Mom made sure my birthday was special. It feels different very different. The tears won't stop flowing...
Man, I would just love to hear your voice...hear you say Happy Birthday and I love you <3
I'm trying to remain happy but my heart is so heavy. I love you Dad and miss you so much...Until next time xoxo “ Wishing I could hear your voice... I don't foresee this getting easier. I try...i try to remember the good times, the funny moments, the memories but I can't get over the fact that you're not here in physical form.

Do you know how much you were loved?
Do you know how much you were appreciated?
((Sighs)) until next time xoxo

“ Hey Dad...just sitting here thinking about ya. We had your services today. It was really nice seeing everyone The military tribute was beautifully orchestrated. The playing of the Taps in the distance filled my heart with so much joy I know you were proud.
You left an impact on many lives and everyone shared stories of what you taught them or how you inspired them. I love you Dad until next time xoxo “ Hey Dad...woke up thinking about you. It's raining and gloomy today goes hand an hand with my mood since Saturday.

Mom's doing ok...she keeps expressing how much she misses you. We all miss you. But Becky and I are keeping her busy. Nathan's been at my house hanging with the boys. Just trying to keep everyone busy...it kinda helps.
I went to work on Tuesday...It was hard but I pushed through it with the help of my amazing coworkers.
Hey Dad...when I lay my head to rest at night...can you hear my prayers? What's heaven like? Is it as beautiful as they proclaim? Has your pain gone away? When I think of you my heart gets heavy...is that because you're close by? Until I see you again...we love and miss you so much xoxo
