

Angelo J. Cherchio

August 3, 1924 - December 25, 2016

Angelo J. Cherchio, 92, formerly of Camillus passed away on the Lord's birthday surrounded by family in Pawleys Island, SC. Born in Warners, he lived and raised his family in Camillus before retiring to Pawleys Island. During WWII he served as a Sgt in Army Air Force's 313th Transport Squadron and served in the European Theater of Operations. He was a lifelong mechanic at Valley Sports Center. He was a humble and incredibly talented family man, building with his own hands his family home. And also known as being able to make or fix anything. In retirement, when not doing or planning one of his many never ending projects, he liked to make his own sausage, bake bread and tend his vegetable garden. He loved his wife and family above all, and cherished those times his entire family was together.

He was predeceased by a son, Robert in 2015; two brothers Joseph Churchio and Phillip Cherchio; and a sister, Mary Cherchio Davis.

Angelo is survived by his wife of 66 years Elizabeth Stock Cherchio; his children Linda (John) Herron; John (Teresa) Cherchio; James (Cheryl) Cherchio; David Cherchio; Lisa (Robert) Blenkle; Mark ( Stacey) Cherchio; his daughter-in-law Tina; 24 grandchildren, several great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and their families.

There will be no calling hours. Services are 11 am Friday at Grace Chapel,

“ To the Cherchio Family,
My sincerest and deepest sympathy on the loss of Ang. Years ago, back in 1976, I worked with Ang at Valley Sports Center. There wasn't a finer man to fill a pair of shoes. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Dear Liz and family. We didn't see each other often but when we did we enjoyed lunch together and the memories of our families. When Allie posted that Ang had passed, the first thing I thought was....he is spending Christmas with Jesus and the families and friends who went before him. We hope to be at the church on Friday, weather permitting and whether Charlie is feeling good enough. You are in our prayers.
