“ As so many of the well-wishers here, I had the wonderful opportunity to grow up "in the neighborhood" with the Cody family and so many others during those magical times. Their backyard was often abuzz with children scurrying through, or UP into the awesome treehouse! They loved boxers, and their little "girl" Dutchess used to come to our kitchen porch every morning to visit us and get treats and visit our dog Schotzie! We will miss you Anne, but even at age 57, the great memories of those days can never be dimmed.

“ As backdoor neighbors growing up, the Cody family was a wonderful part of my childhood and life. Ann was one of the many neighborhood moms who raised us all. Her house always had an open door, warm and gracious hospitality, people and pets to love and receive love from, lots of fun, action and laughter - it was a bustling home and Ann loved and thrived in her role as wife, mother and neighbor. I resonate with the picture you chose - I remember the radiant smile on her face, her sense of humor and her zest for living. As a Physical Ed. instructor, we kids always knew that Mrs. Cody was much stronger than anyone we knew so ... Don't challenge her. To Bill, Mike, Pat and Kelly, I consider myself richly blessed to have been her and your neighbor. My prayers and love are with you during this time of grief, loss and so many memories. Kevin Frank

“ Many memories of your mother. One in particular is of your Mom and Dad “tailgating” in our garage for the Army Navy game. Can picture your parents and mine always having fun together -lots of laughter.

Thinking of you all. 🙏

“ Anne and I went back many years to the time we both worked at Holy Cross School--she as phs.ed.teacher and I as nurse. We planned our days off together to ski in the winter and play racket ball in the summer. Anne was so loved by the children--she had a real knack for making each child feel loved and accepted. Our friendship continued thru the years with all our activities at Holy Cross. Anne was so generous with her time and talents.She was there before you knew you needed help.

I know she is resting in peace--she earned her crown.

“ Bill,Mike,Pat and Kelly.....I'm so happy that we were able to grow up together as a family. We shared a lot of great times and bbq's at camp and at our homes together. I will always remember and cherish the family times we had together. We may no longer hear her with our ears, but we will always feel her with our hearts.
