“ I only met Tony once, when he came to my house for Comfort Windows to fix something. It was Friday, August 11, 2017. He only stayed for about half an hour, but went over and above to help me out. He impressed me so much in just a brief visit that I was deeply saddened to see his obituary. I can only imagine the grief of those close to him. My sincere condolences to his family.

“ Uncle Tony was one of the strongest (physically and mentally) and hardest working men I’ve ever known. I was lucky to grow up right upstairs from him, Aunt Gale, and Chris, Tricia, and Paul. He did an amazing job taking care of his family and raising fantastic children. He was a great role model for all of us even into our adulthood. He will be missed.

I’m so sorry Aunt Gale and the rest of the family.

Rest In Peace Uncle Tony ❤️
