

Barbara Ann Henson

January 14, 1939 - March 22, 2021

Barbara Ann Henson, 82, a longtime resident of Onondaga Hill, passed away Monday, March 22nd 2021 at Loretto. Born in Syracuse to Donald and Mildred (Stone) Coon, she graduated from West Genesee High School. Her hobbies included reading, crocheting, cooking, and she had a Green Thumb for plants and flowers. She was employed at Brach's Candy in Chicago and was a bookkeeper for many years. She was a quiet but strong woman who was kind and sweet to everyone she met. She never complained and always wore a smile on her face.

She couldn't survive without her chocolate milk and Peanut M&Ms and her love of Jelly Beans came in at a close second. Her greatest joy was her grandchildren and great grandchildren. Barbara is predeceased by her parents and his sister Donna Facheric in 2019.

She is survived by her son Roger Henson of Syracuse; two daughters Deborah Solan (James) of North Carolina and Cynthia Clark (Stephen) of Florida; a brother David Pringle of Warners; three sisters Jean (David) Missoff of Florida, Phyllis Begg of Warners, and Jessica DelMoral of Colorado; seven grandchildren Crystal (Joshua) Parrott, Justin (Kacie) Clark, Kevin (Shelly) Solan, Michael (Ashley) Solan, Kaitlyn (Marek) Clark, Jillian Henson and Juliana Henson; five great grandchildren; many nieces and nephews .

Calling hours will be Saturday, March 27th from 10 AM to 12 with services at Noon at B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, 10 Genesee St., Camillus. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery, Syracuse.

“ Roger and Deb, and family - What a beautiful tribute to your Mom. Her obituary was so well written with much thought and love. So nice that you shared so much about her with the rest of us. May she rest in peace and may you know that you were good and loving children. God bless all. Phyllis Lorenz & family
