

Bernard Zmarthie

August 8, 2006

Bernard Terrance Zmarthie, 62, a resident of Annapolis for 40 years, died unexpectedly Aug. 8 in his home. Born Aug. 20, 1944, in Auburn, N.Y., Mr. Zmarthie served in the Navy as a radio man and cryptographer. He was an artist, specializing in oil painting, with an emphasis on scenes of the Chesapeake Bay. In addition, he was self-employed as a painting contractor. His interests included boating, connecting with friends and the philosophical inquiry into the meaning of life, his family said. He was predeceased by his brother John on May 30, 2006. Surviving are his parents, Elwood and Helen Zmarthie of Auburn; his daughter, Eleanor Burch Melograna of Annapolis; his son, Jay Adams of Annapolis; one granddaughter; and one brother, Kevin Zmarthie of San Francisco. He was the brother of John Zmarthie who died in June. A ceremony celebrating his life and art was held at the Overlook in Annapolis Roads. Burial is private. A memorial plaque will be erected in his name at the Maryland Veterans Cemetery in Crownsville.

Tribute Wall

AP

“ Aunt Helen and Uncle Elwood Jay and Eleanor Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. God Bless you all!
Jerry and Anne

Anne and Jerry Peer - August 19, 2006 at 12:00 AM

BW

“ Our sympathy goes to the extended Zmarthie family over the loss of Bernard. We will remember him with a smile.

Bill & Caroline Wade - August 18, 2006 at 12:00 AM

JW

“ I would like to convey my deepest sympathy for your loss. My condolences. Joe

Josef Waclena - August 16, 2006 at 12:00 AM