“ Dear Ann, I got the word of "Uncle" Bill's paasing only a few days ago when Randy Beeman told me. Uncle Bill had represented my company in New York state, but above all he was a role model in terms of disciplin, integrity and commitment. i have great memories of our times together at numerous sales calls, trade shows and out trip to Switzerland. I will never forget the dinner at your house when you cooked a mexican dish and - which I never saw before - uncle Bill had a beer from a Mason jar. I'll miss him and i still have the photograph of him in uniform and you beside him on my desk at home. He was ready when duty was calling and now he had one more call to answer. God give him peace and bless you and your family. Yours respectfully, Andi and family from Germany.

“ Mrs.Cody, Bill, Mike,Pat and Kelly, I am so sorry for your loss. Many years have passed since we have been neighbors, but the fond memories of knowing Dad has never faded. He was a great family man and father. I remember as kids, we used to wait till he came home from work to unload his trailer and make forts out of the empty cardboard boxes he brought home for the neighborhood kids to play with. My prayers and best got out to all of you and your families. Sincerely, Jay Gerber

“ Gen Cody was a great friend and Commander of the 27th BDE. It is with deep sorrow that I hear of his passing. I looked forward to seeing him each month at our breakfasts with the retired soldiers from the BDE. Bill will be missed and thought of often. I wish to extend my feelings to his family.

“ To dear Mrs Cody and the entire clan, I extend my deepest condolences. As painfully shy as I was as a kid growing up 3 houses away, Mr. Cody would always tease, whistle, or happily shout his greetings, refusing to let me go unnoticed. He made me feel special~ a great gift. He would greet each neighborhood child by name, and always with genuine enthusiasm and interest. Together with his wife, they were cornerstones of the neighborhood, coloring and enriching our memories. Such a special family, and a great and generous man.
