“ I worked with Carl for several years at Hertz, we always had fun working together, he was the most faithful and reliable employee there. He always cared about his adult children's welfare. He was a big sports fan. Carl loved life even with tough times and agony. Rest in peace friend.

“ Carlton was extremely faithful to his local Baptist Church and very dedicated to his children's welfare. He was blessed with a wonderful sense of humor and shared that gift often.
Carl was a workaholic and not afraid to put in long hours at his places of employment to support his wife and children to his best ability.
He was a true New York Yankee fan.
May Carlton rest forever in his well deserved Eternal Peace, finally free of pain, agony and discomfort.
