

Carol (Bannister) Enman

August 4, 2009

Carol Bannister Enman, 62 of Windham, ME passed away Tuesday after a brief illness with lung disease. Born in Ithaca, NY to Henry and Olive (MacDonald) Bannister, she graduated from Reed College in Portland, OR as an English major in 1970. She and Bob came to Maine in 1990 when he began his music teaching career in the area and joined Bangor Symphony. Carol worked in publications and school placements as an adjunct to her husband's teaching career. She was a gifted writer and had special interests in cooking, Russian history, biographies and literature, and in the process acquiring a large personal library. She is survived by her husband of 43 years, Robert Enman of Windham and her sister, Susan Strahorn of Menlo Park CA. Graveside services will be 1 pm Friday, August 14 on the MacDonald/Bannister lot in Maple Grove Cemetery, Jordan. Arrangements by B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, Camillus. Contributions may be made to Scarborough Public Library, 48 Gorham Rd, Scarborough, ME 04074 Please sign guestbook at www.BLBUSH.com

“ I was deeply saddened to learn of Carol's illness and subsequent passing. We had become friends and confidantes-of-sorts while both attending JCB high school. But as often happens in life, we had lost touch quite some time ago. I especially admired Carol's acute intellect, sensitivity toward others, and her quiet sense of humor. Please accept my deepest sympathies in your loss.
