

Carol Brooks Lau

November 2, 2013

Carol Lau, 91, of Camillus, passed away on Saturday, November 2nd at home with family by her side. Born in Syracuse, she graduated from Camillus High School and CCBI, was a lifelong member of the Camillus Baptist Church, directed the adult choir for many years and, at the time of her passing, was the oldest living member of the church. She was the founding member of the VFW Ladies Auxiliary in Camillus. Carol and her family also fostered many children through Child and Family Services. Carol was predeceased by her husband of 55 years, William, in 1998.

She is survived by three daughters, Karen (Robert) Perrone of Farmington, Kristy Neuser and Shelley Lau-House of Camillus; a brother, Richard Brooks of Doylestown, PA; seven grandchildren, Jeffrey (Barb) Robinson, Tim (Delores) Robinson, Jennifer (Kevin) Gallivan, Tony (Julie) Neuser, Jim (Jennifer) Russo, Cara Castagna and William Castagna; 16 great-grandchildren; and Diana Farnham whom she also considered a daughter.

Services are 11 a.m. Thursday at Camillus Baptist Church. Burial will be in Maplewood Cemetery, Camillus. Arrangements by B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, 10 Genesee St., Camillus.

Contributions, in lieu of flowers, may be made to the Humane Society; St. Joseph's Hospital Homecare; or the Camillus Baptist Church Memorial Fund

c/o Shelley Lau-House, 2179 Bitters Road, Camillus, NY 13031.

“ Hello to everybody. I won't be able to attend, as I am having a medical procedure done that day. I wish everyone well, and extend my deepest sympathy to all the family. Aunt Carol was always loving to all, and opened her heart and home to those who needed comfort and love. Heaven is gaining an angle! With much love towards all.
