“ Catherine was my first mother in law for about 3 yrs. She was a wonderful and kind person. I still have beautifully decorated felt Christmas ornaments she made. I will never forget her.

“ Catherine was my warm, caring best friend. She helped me raise my kids, was my rock through so many hard times. She and I shared laughter and tears. I sadly had lost track of her after Harold died. I spent years trying to find her and was broken hearted when I saw her obituary. I so wanted to make her service, but my granddaughter was sick and I had to stay with her. Just wanted God and the world to know how much Catherine meant to me, and my family. She was a wonderful person and friend and I will miss her very, very much. My deepest sympathy to Joe, John and their families. Love, Sharon
