“ Dear Chris, I am one of your friends from high school, Mary Ann Ranalli (last name now is Seward) and I remember you so very fondly. I am sorry about your dear mom passing away. I have thought of you many times; I remember many good conversations with you. Besides your friendship, I enjoyed your reasonableness and humor. I wish you comfort in this difficult time (Revelation 21:4).

“ The other day I was "checking things off" my Christmas-countdown chore list, and I thought of a conversation with Charlene. We were cleaning up after a church event and she noted she was going home to bake cookies. I suggested she "just do them tomorrow." She replied, "Because today is their day to get done!" She was a woman of purpose, vision and resolve, tempered with compassion and humor ~ truly a "Titus 2" woman. May memories be your comfort and the resurrected Christ Child your hope. Our prayers are with you all.
