I would like to set a record straight. I'm was the step daughter of her. I made a terrible misstep and as payment she left my out of my father's obituarie. I was not listed as his daughter. I truly loved my father!

“ I first had the pleasure of meeting Cheryl, along with Phil, at a local Methodist church. Over time, the three of us became close friends. We frequently met at the B'ville Diner and shared many a laugh and good conversation.

Cheryl went through so much hardship due to her illness, but always greeted you with a smile and a positive attitude. She was one of the kindest and most caring people I have ever known. I will truly miss her. God bless you Cheryl. It comforts me to know you are finally at peace...
