

Christopher Scott Halloran

May 27, 1973 - September 13, 2023

Christopher “Chris” Halloran, 50, of Geddes passed away on September 13th, 2023 at home from a sudden illness and went to be with the Lord. He was born in Syracuse on May 27, 1973 and graduated from Baker High School in Baldwinsville and Syracuse University. He was employed by the Pool Surgeons in North Syracuse where he loved his job and was skilled at installing inground pools. Chris was loved by his family and many friends. He enjoyed spending time with his grandparents, Walter and Elinor Shulkies, in Henderson Harbor and with his other grandparents, Larry and Dorothy Halloran, at their farm and park in Camillus. Chris enjoyed sailing, four wheeling, skiing, and salmon fishing.

Chris was predeceased by his brother Sean Halloran; his mother Carol DeLaura and his stepfather Edward DeLaura.

Chris is survived by his father Lawrence (Nancy) Halloran of Camillus; a brother Timothy of Denver, CO; a niece Niki DeLaura Ariola; a nephew Eddie DeLaura; three stepbrothers David (Vivian) Koster and Paul (Tammy) Koster of Minoa and their children Evan and Kaden Koster, and Ed DeLaura of Baldwinsville.

A private celebration of his life was held at Christ Community Church of the Nazarene in Syracuse.

Donations in his memory can be made to Samaritan's Purse disaster fund at www.samaritanspurse.org

Arrangements by B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, Camillus. Please sign his guestbook at www.BLBUSH.com

Tribute Wall

JM

“ Chris was such a kind and thoughtful soul. He was a wonderful neighbor, and took such good care of his Mom through the years. He was soft spoken, but always ready to lend a hand if he saw someone in need. We will miss his smile and friendly greetings when passing on the tractor, the plow truck, or his shiny new truck :) God Bless you, Chris. Love, The Mathews

jess mathews - October 12, 2023 at 11:16 AM