“ I remember so many good times when we used to play and ride together. We always enjoyed the strength of our families and the joy of riding horseback throughout the area. I hold those cherished memories dear to me and wish the family peace and love.

“ Please pass on my Sincerest Sympathy to Cindy's family. Can't tell you what a surprise it was to receive the notice of her passing from a freind that still lives in NY. Can't imagine how losing a child can ever be tolerated. Losing my spouse was difficult enough. Again my thoughts and prayers to the family, and especially to Ann and Gerry. Thank you for sharing my message with them. Linda Scripa
