“ I knew Dave since we were kids growing up in Eastwood. We, and a couple of our other friends, were always interested in cars. My family moved out of Eastwood and we eventually lost touch. A good number of years later we happen to bump into each other at a car show. We reunited, and shared our interest in cars once again. I will miss him very much. To his wife Carol, his brother Tom, his sister Sue and there spouses, and to all of his family and many friends, my deepest condolences.
Peace to you brother

“ God Bless David, David's family and friends and caregivers! This is Cherie...I had the lovely privilege of meeting Sue and Scott last evening...their genuine warmth and love invited conversation, which quickly led to sharing the love of our brothers; your David and my twin John E., and, I too have a brother Dave who I can "talk to so easily."

Our families' connections are special, and Sue, here's another one...my Donna shared Dave's lifetime highlight driving in Richard Petty's Driving Experiences, in Charlotte! (and from pit row I got to proudly say "Ladies and Gentlemen start your engines!!")

I am so grateful David was blessed with all of you, and that I have personally experienced his love living in, and through, you Sue...feel my love today in celebrating Dave's journey back Home, to Dave's peace, love and eternal freedom...all is well, I love you, Cherie

“ Dave knew a lot of people. His years at the Syracuse City Schools honed his sense of humour. He will be missed, especially at the Monday night car cruise at Skanellus. Sad to say "Good bye"
