“Wow, im so sorry to hear about Dave. I haven't talked to or seen Dave since the early 2000's when he used to work for us at the business we used to own on westcott street in syracuse. I don't remember when he started with us or why or when he left, but it doesn't matter. All i know is that the Dave i knew was a good worker, a warm and friendly person. No only did he work for me, but he lived a few doors down from the store and on many occasions, we all would go down to his house after we closed up at 2 or 3 in the morning and a bunch of us would hang out until the sun started to come up. Boy, did he like to fish. Many nights after work, yes at 2 or 3 in the morning, we would jump in my mustang convertible, with the top down, all the way to brewerton, to fish for catfish until sunrise. The Dave Tolone that I knew was a good man, a fun loving man. Dave, say hello to my mother for me. She passed away in 2006 at far to young an age as well. You and her worked many hours together, side by side in that kitchen. May you rest in peace and my condolences to the entire Tolone family.

“ To the Tolone crew....my thoughts and prayers are with you always. To Amber...No one should have to endure the pain and struggles that you have been through these past 4 years. Just remember what an amazing person, mother, wife, and friend that you were and still are. As hard as it is to know that Dave is gone, I know you are comforted by the fact that he is no longer in pain, and that honestly if he had his choice, he would choose to be in heaven. He will always keep watch over you and the boys, and we will always keep him in our hearts. We will remember his demented sense of humor that would make us laugh for days, and his smile and charm that made us all love him immediately. Just know that you and the boys are loved immensely and that we will ALWAYS be here for you. Love you like a sister. To Dave....may the love you had for your family stay fresh in their memories always. We will miss you, and will catch up with you at a later time. Make sure to set aside a set of wings for me. Love and prayers!!!

“ Terry, as you already know, I am so very sorry for your loss. You were truly an angel to Dave. You never left his side these past two years while he battled his cancer. You were there for the good and the bad, never once wavering in your commitment to him. And he loved you just as fiercely, we could all see that. Please keep in mind that true love never dies. He will live on in your heart forever. As for his boys, he loved them with all his heart and was a great father to them. My heart breaks for them, for you, and his many friends who love him and will miss him dearly.

“ I will cherish all of the time we spent together as we were fighting our battles side by side. You will be missed. May God Bless your friends, family, and your angel on Earth, Terry. Our family will look fondly on the memories of your visits with us... Here is a prayer for you and all of us that mourn losing you: Lord Jesus, our Redeemer, You willingly gave Yourself up to death so that all people might be saved and pass from death into a new life. Listen to our prayers; look with love on Your people who mourn and pray for their dead brother. Lord Jesus, You alone are holy and compassionate; forgive our brother his sins. By dying You opened the gates of life for those who believe in You; do not let Your brother be parted from You, but by Your glorious power give him light, joy, and peace in heaven where You live for ever and ever. Amen.

“ Amber, Joshua, and Aiden: It seems like just yesterday we were attending your wedding. You and Dave were so happy! I remember how proud he was when Joshua was born, and again when Aiden was born. It's sad that your time together was so short, but he leaves behind his legacy - his sons - as a daily reminder of his love. You are a strong woman, Amber, who opens her heart, even to the people who hurt you. Let your family surround you and the boys with our love while you heal. My sympathy to the his father, mother, and siblings.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Dave’s family. It’s terrible that these boys have lost their father, but Amber, you are an amazing mother and I know that they will thrive with your love and support and the love and support of your family and friends. Know that we will be here for you guys, now and always. Much love.

“ Amber, You have been through so much but you have handled it all with grace and dignity. It is not hard for me to understand why you continued to love the man who broke your heart, as you said "Dave has a beautiful soul." Please know that our family will do the best we can to make sure the boys know how much their father loved them. Hopefully, they too will come to know his beautiful soul, not the man he was with all his imperfections, but the man he could have been, the man he tried to be.

“ My family and I extend our condolences, thoughts and prayers to the family and friends of David Tolone. Below is a poem that we hope will be of comfort to you during this time. May God Bless and Keep you always. If You Could See Me Now If you could see me now you wouldn't shed a tear. Though you may not understand why I'm no longer there. Remember my spirit that is the real me because I'm still very Much alive, I've just been set free, Oh, if you could only see! I have beheld our Father's face and I've touched my Savior's Hand. All of Heaven's angels rejoiced as I entered the promised Land. Beyond the gates of pearl I've walked on the golden streets. I've touched the walls of jasper and dipped my foot in the Crystal sea. The beauty is beyond words and nothing could Compare, I've even seen your mansion and someday I'll meet you there. Let Jesus be your guide because His Word will show you the way! So please don't Cry because we will meet again someday. -Author: Patsy Stambaugh Deskins

“ My friend Dave, we never got the time to go fishing and camping together with the boys. We recently connected after 25 years and talked about our past and future dreams and wishes. I would hope some day to see your wishes come true. I was looking forward to doing those things together. I have never been a religious person because of all the young deaths of friends and family. Terry is a wonderful woman who made you happy and smile. I didn't know her to well but I could see the love she had for you. Rest in peace my friend and some day I will see you again.

“ I would like to thank all the people that looked after my dear friend while he fought his battle. All of the nurses from the 3-2 unit at St. Joseph's Hospital, you all were amazing. I would also like to especially thank Terry DeFrancis for the many days and nights that you spent by Dave's side caring for him and giving him comfort when he needed it most. He loved you dearly. I will miss him greatly and will always cherish our friendship.
