

DeEtte G. Ballantyne

December 14, 2013

DeEtte G. Ballantyne, 98, of formerly of Pulaski and Westvale died Saturday, Dec., 14th. Born in Port Byron she graduated from Auburn High School, Wheaton College and Columbia University. Barnes in 2002. Sadly DeEtte’s mental state deteriorated and she has been in nursing home care since 2002. Thank you to her caregivers and to those church members that had stayed in touch. She was a long time member of Westminster Presbyterian Church. She is survived by two nieces DeEtte Franz and Jill Barnes both of Malone; two nephews Randy Barnes of Hawley, PA and Jeffrey Barnes of Oswego and their families. She was a wonderful person, really fun Aunt and will be missed. “ My condolences to the Ballantyne family. Luke 20:38 says: He is a God not of the dead but of the living, for they are all living to him. Yes to God his loyal ones who have died faithful to him are as good as alive, their resurrection is a certainty. Please find some comfort from this, in your difficult days ahead.

“ Our deepest sympathy to DeEtte's family. We both grew up in Westminster Church and have many fond memories of both DeEtte & Tom. In fact, as a young child DeEtte was my Sunday School Teacher. We share your loss.

“ My sympathy and prayers to the family. I knew DeEtte as a neighbor on North Rainbow Shores Rd. She was such a nice person. She kept her yard so neat, always mowed. Such a difficult disease. God bless you.

“ DeEtte was our wonderful next door neighbor at the Lake. We shared many good times. She had such great stories to tell and so much knowledge through her vast experience. We are glad to have known her and are grateful for the care you gave her.

“ I had the good fortune to work with DeEtte at Lincoln Elementary School before it was closed. DeEtte was a warm, passionate professional who cared about our students. It was a honor to work together.
