*My heart breaks for you kids. Your mom's the sweetest, most giving, loving woman. Family was most important to her & it showed when she'd talk about all of you . Years ago when you all came to Asbury Methodist Church we'd get a few glares during choir practice & we'd get into a bit of trouble 😊
My heart is with you all, through tears, laughter & many hugs the memories made since you were kids will warm your hearts . Love from Betty & Mike Block 🙏😊*

“ So sorry to hear about Dolores. I was on Dolores’s bowling team at Solvay until she couldn’t bowl anymore. We had quite a few laughs and she was the sweetest lady. She always was so interested to hear about my boys and what activities they were into. I will always have fond memories of her and see her smile always.

“ Dolores was the very best friend I have ever had. We were neighbors for almost twenty years and friends for close to fifty years. She and I just clicked from the day we met, and we shared laughing, crying, confidences and love for all of those years. I have talked with her recently and planned to visit sometime this year. My heart is broken, but I know she is with Jesus, and I hope to see her one day again. I miss you, girlfriend!!! And I will love you always. Love ,Sandy

Kim and Kathy, please send me your phone numbers if you can. My cell number is 904-234-5046.
