

Donald E. Logan Jr.

November 4, 1962 - October 31, 2024

Donald Eugene "Dick" Logan, Jr., 61, of the Village of Camillus passed away unexpectedly at home on October 31, 2024. Born in Newport News, VA, he moved to Camillus in 2011. He worked at Upstate Hospital in the maintenance department. Donald enjoyed taking walks along Nine Mile Creek and the Erie Canal. His favorite saying was, "It is what it is". He was a fan of the Dallas Cowboys and loved to play pool. He celebrated 21 years of sobriety and was a member of AA and Al Anon. He worked hard to follow the 12 Steps to improve his life and the lives of those around him. He continued to grow as a person by reflecting on his past and seeking to be a better person every day. Most importantly, he loved his Creator and was well-versed in the Bible and would share his spirituality freely with others.

He was pre-deceased by his father, Donald E. Logan, Sr. in 2009.

He loved all of his family including his two sons, Donald A. (Rebecca) Logan and Brandon D. Logan both of Syracuse; his mother Hassie B. Perkins of Newport News, VA; a brother Modiana J. Logan and a sister Veronica O. Logan both of Newport News, VA; and several nieces and nephews.

Calling hours will be held on Saturday, Nov. 9th from 2 to 4 pm at B.L. Bush and Sons Funeral Home, 10 Genesee Street, Camillus with services to follow.

Please sign his guestbook at www.BLBUSH.com

“ I’m so sorry to hear of your loss, deck was a real bulldog as far as sobriety went, he worked hard on it. I know He showed others that it could work, and he really impressed me with his determination. We lost a good one. I always remember his two sons. They sat on my lap when I played Santa Claus God love you guys. God bless yours forever yours Ken.
