

Donald Weaver

October 1, 2008

Donald E. Weaver, 81, of Camillus died Tuesday at home. Don was born in Schenectady where he reached the rank of Eagle Scout and later graduated from Nott Terrace HS in 1945. He served in the Navy during WWII. After his service, he graduated from the University of Oklahoma. Don was married to Katherine (Thompson) Weaver for 34 years prior to her death in 1985. He retired in 1982 after 30 years of employment with NY Telephone in serving mainly in the capacity of division engineer manager. In retirement, he volunteered with Habitat for Humanity, helping build low income housing for 15 years. He was also an avid downhill skier. Don has been a member of Fairmount Community Church for over 45 years and served on number of church boards. Survived by three sons and one daughter; Donna Finck, Wayne Weaver, Bruce (Francine) Weaver, Kirk (Jonna) Weaver, six grandchildren, a great grandchild, brother Edgar Weaver and sister, Marguerite Bartlett and a special friend, Helen Clark. Services are 11 am Monday at Fairmount Community Church, United Church of Christ, 4801 W. Genesee St., Syracuse, NY 13219. Calling hours are 4 to 7 pm Sunday at the B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, 10 Genesee Street, Camillus. Burial will be in Greenlawn Memorial Park. Contributions in lieu of flowers may be made to Habitat for Humanity, 308 Otisco Street, Syracuse 13204.
