“Marie, Sorry for your loss. Your mother had been so kind to me when I was younger. When I was in college in Syracuse, your parents would come and pick me up and treat me to a home cooked meal. I was blessed to have known them. Sincerely, Ellen Smith Dunbar (Tillie Smith's Daughter)

“ Marie, My heart goes out to you. This has been a long journey. You have been a wonderful daughter to your mother even when you were struggling to keep up yourself. Being a caregiver is a very difficult and exhausting job. As you mourn another loss, I hope you can find some joy in good memories. Thinking of you from afar. Sending you love and prayers. -Debbie Quigley
