“ To my feisty fellow reader. How fortunate I have been to have known you and the love of your life Doug. You are truly at peace as you were lost without him. I am not sad as I know you reunited again and are dancing up a storm. I will remember you fondly, our honest conversations about life and how we could fix everything. Fran and I will keep our book club going and always remember you. To your family how lucky you were to have such devoted parents and your love you gave them in return as they got older was a testament of that love. She was extremely proud of her grandchildren also. Rest In Peace my friend. Love Marcia

“ We are so heartbroken and shocked to hear of Dottie's sudden passing. She was such a beautiful, strong, wise and compassionate lady! We have been next door neighbors with her and Doug for 34 years. They were the kindest, most thoughtful, beautiful people you could have the honor of knowing. A truly remarkable couple in so many ways.

We had a variety of wonderful conversations about life and sharing stories practically everyday which I will miss so much and forever cherish. They are terribly missed by all who knew and loved them. I have no doubt that she and Doug are together dancing in heaven. RIP Dottie.

With Deepest Sympathy and Love,
Paula and Jimmy

May your Children and Grandchildren take great comfort in knowing you and Doug are doing the Polka together in the great Polka Varieties in the Sky.
