“ I know it has been awhile since Dorothy's death. However, I am sure you all are missing her so much. That smile and that laugh! I met Dorothy when I moved in to Steeple Chase apartments in Camillus. I was part of the Sat. morning coffee group and have very fond memories of her. I am sorry for your loss. She always loved to talk about her family and her grandchildren. She came to my wedding in Skaneateles in 2010. It was wonderful to have her there.

“ Dorothy was an extraordinary person. She brought up 5 terrific children and gave me the gift of the best daughter-in-law in the world (Wendy); the greatest wife for my son (David) and two of the most beautiful, intelligent and magnificent grandgirls (Heather and Jessica), whom we shared. I will forever be grateful to her!
