“ To the Smith family, my second family, my sincerest sympathy to you all. Dick was my second father as well as Pat my second mom. Many, many memories of growing up next door to you all. My best friend Jim, Tom, Sharon, Bob...my parents held you all in the greatest regard, lifelong and forever friends. Dick was the source of dry wit that passed on to Jim, Bob, and all who came to know him. Just a fine fine man, I will miss him. Last time I saw him he brought me his old West Genesee Athletic Club shirt, a great memory of something my Dad put thousands of man hours into during his life. Rest in peace Dick Smith, you influenced my life in ways you may not have known.
