

Elizabeth Betty Ryan

December 11, 2011

Betty J. Ryan, 80, of Camillus, died Sunday at Crouse Hospital, after a lengthy illness. She was raised in Auburn, NY, the only daughter of Richard and Beatrice Curran. She worked at University Hospital on the Psychiatry Unit for 15 years. She was, until recently, residing at East Side Manor in Fayetteville. She was a long-time communicant of both Holy Family Church in Fairmount and St. Joseph's Church in Camillus. Betty was pre-deceased by her son Keary Michael, who died in infancy. She is survived by sons, Brendan and Daniel (Karen); daughters, Linda (Gerald) Magnanti, Kathleen (Mark) Cole, and Tara, 8 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren. A private Mass at St. Joseph's Church and burial in Greenlawn Cemetery were held. Arrangements by the B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, Camillus. Donations in lieu of flowers can be made to Crouse Health Foundation. Please sign the guestbook at www.BLBUSH.com

“ Tara, Linda, Kathy, Brendan and Danny. You are all in my prayers. I have know y'all for most of my life and I want to express my deepest sympathy on the passing of your mom, Betty. May you find comfort in knowing that she suffers no longer. We can now cherish her in our thoughts and in our hearts. She definitely meant something different for each one of us. Hang onto her memory and God Bless.

“ Tara - I am so sorry that your mom has passed away. I always enjoyed the stories of the relationship you shared with your mom, and that you always gave her all credit for instilling in you and your siblings to "do the right thing". Although I never had the opportunity to meet her personally, I thought highly of her as a result of our friendship. You and your family are in my prayers. God Bless - Angela
