“ Mom you are missed so much. I miss hearing your voice and words of wisdom. You were always there for me with your unconditional love. The guidance you gave me was second to non. I know you are in heaven now rejoicing with your parents and uncle ralph. I am glad you have no more pain but I am so sad to have lost you. You were a tender hearted women who would do anything possable to help anyone in need. I learned so much from you. Words can not express the sarrow I feel. Mom I love you so much I wish we had more time together on this earth. I know your watching over me and your grandkids. Until that day comes when we meet again Mom, you will be dearly missed. Rest in peace for now you are home.

“ Only having know Betty for just shy of ten years, my memories are warm and wonderful. The children at the Amboy Belle Isle United Church would be the first to tell that she always taught and showed them the meaning of the love of God and Jesus for all children. Sunday School children, visiting children, Vacation Bible School children all experienced her tender loving care - and so did I. Betty was a witness to the mighty power of God in prayer as she struggled with pain that was undescribable - and still she smiled. God's promise of eternal life is her gift of grace today.

“ Aunt Bea, your heart, your hugs, and your kind words helped me get thru the loss of my grandparents, and my father. I can still hear your words. Your heart will be remembered by all who knew you. Im going to miss the hugs. Michael.

“ Betty, You are truly God's angel put on this earth to show us how to love God in all we do. I've watched you reach out to an unruly child and touch his head with your tender, loving hand as you smile with Christ's smile on your face. I've seen you move in great physical pain, but look up at everyone with Christ's smile on your face. Everyone one who had the privilege to cross your path of life, participate in parts of your life, have the opportunity to be close to you in this life, to cry on your shoulder and have you cry on mine, sharing secrets of hurts as well as joys - we are the blessed ones for having you in our lives. May we all strive to have such a loving heart as yours. God knows we are glad you are whole and pain free now, though we shall all have a warm piece of you forever in our hearts. So, farewell, my earthly angel - enjoy your eternity with the Lord for us - until we see you again in heaven.

“ Betty was not only my sister, but she was also my friend. Words cannot express the pain I feel now that she is gone. I know that God has a plan for her, but I am greedy and wanted to keep her here. I remember the picture of her when she was a child which showed her with "angel wings". I always knew she was an angel and a very special person. I wish we had more time together; life seems so short. I will always remember you in my heart and all of the special times that we shared. Love "Sissy"

“ Betty the heavens rang out the day you went home to be with the Lord. Your pain has ended and there is no more suffering for you. I know the Lord has welcomed you in with open arms, telling you "well done my good and faithful daughter". You will be missed but in my heart you will remain always. I love you and hope to see you again one day. The twinkling of your eyes and the smile you always wore will be remembered by all.

“ Betty was the best mom-in-law someone could ask for. She welcomed me into the family with open arms and passed me her knowledge of everything from cooking to raising boys. I will miss having her advice on things. Betty always treated me like the daughter she never had and I will always love her like she was my MOM!!!

“ Aunt Bea will be truly missed. I will always remember all the times I spent with her. When I was a kid her house was like a second home. We played cards together all the time and always had fun. Aunt Bea always had a smile on her face and knew how to get you to smile. She was a very special woman who cared for everyone and never thought of herself. I will always love and miss her.

“ My Aunt "Bea" will be truly missed. I will never forget all of the fun times I had with her when I was a little girl. God truly received an angel the day He took her home. May you rest in peace and please give my Dad a hug for me.
