“ We were very sorry to hear of Elsie's passing, she was a great person a true lady. It was always a pleasure to see her and talk to her, Richard remembers her cutting his hair. I got to know her after moving out here and joining the Mother's and Wives service club. I have never met a nicer person and never met anyone who did not love her. I know you will all miss her very much.

“ Dear Nancy, Randy & David and families Your Mom was very special to me; I was always delighted to see her -- I would usually be with my Mom--Frances VanWie who passed away November 2, 2009. Even though she lived a long life, it is hard to let her go. You are in our prayers.

“ What can I say...Elsie was more then a friend to Floyd & Norma Woods and family. She was like family. Elsie made each of us feel very special. She genuinely cared & in return, we all cared deeply for her. Growing up in the neighborhood was a rich blessing. Elsie will always hold a special place in my (our) heart. May God hold your hearts as you go through the coming days. May good memories, faithfilled prayers and love carry each of you. She was a good lady. We loved her & always will!
