“ If anyone is going to strut their wings in heaven, it will be Ethel. Always so full of life, with a forever smile and good word for all, so many will be happy to greet her on arrival. I had the great pleasure of knowing Ethel at Camillus Junior High/ Middle School and continued to see her at the CMS reunions. She always made the days at school brighter! Sincere condolences to your family. Diane Caryl

“ You are all in my thoughts and prayers. I taught at West Genesee Sr. High when your mother worked there. She always greeted me with a smile when I saw her. I always admired her beautiful paintings that hung on the school's walls. You are all fortunate to have had your mother in your lives for such a long time. May your memories of her help during this difficult time.

“ Hello Betty, from a retiree of W. Genesee High School who worked there with your mother and continued to see her at the high school retiree picnics that we held every other June at Marcellus Park. She so enjoyed attending those get-togethers and it was always fun to see her there. At each one she amazed me by how cheerful and peppy she was, taking a walk around the park (which made me quite nervous until she returned) and chatting with fellow retirees from the high school. I wanted to write to you because when I was in 2nd or 3rd grade you used to come to the house once a week after school from Valley and get us caught up on ironing when my mother was teaching--back in the mid-1950s. I shared this remembrance with your mother and she may have passed it on to you. We all enjoyed visiting with Ethel at the June picnics and we will miss her at the next one. She was quite valiant, in her quiet way.

“ To the Kellogg family- as a neighbor of Ethel and David it has been my pleasure to know Ethel. Her faith was amazing and she was so devoted to Fairmount Community Church. Ethel knew alot about flowers and taught me so much. I know she is happy today but she will certainly be missed.

“ To David, Betty (whom I never had the pleasure of meeting), Rick and Wendy: You have my sympathy and condolences on the death of your Mom. Your Mom was a great friend to my Mom. She watched all the Franks grow up and spread our wings. She was a strong woman with an opinion on many things. I got to know her better in my later years and I think she became a good friend. She was also a link to my Mom. I will always remember her fondly and all her flowers/plants. I will always admire her strength. Diane Marsh

“ Dear David, Betty, Ricky, and Wendy, I am sorry to hear about Aunt Ethel's passing. She lived a long, and faithful life. She was not only my mom's sister, but a link to my dad's family. I talked at length with her at the family reunion, and am so glad that I did. I am sorry, but I am not able to be there at this time. My prayers are with you.
