

Garrett Paul D'Angelo

January 21, 1960 - July 21, 2022

Jerry, a loving husband, son, and father passed away Thursday surrounded with love. Jerry was born on January 21, 1960, to his beloved parents, Gretchen S. Jenner and Thomas D'Angelo. He graduated from Horseheads Central High School and earned a certificate in auto-mechanics from BOCES and attended Onondaga Community College. Jerry had a multitude of interests and passions which led him on a varied career path including everything from computers to construction. He was a creative problem solver who enjoyed cooking for his family, tinkering with cars, fishing, playing World of Warcraft with friends, camping, drawing, and learning new things.

Jerry is survived by his parents, Gretchen S. Jenner and Thomas D'Angelo, his wife Martha D'Angelo, sisters Julie (David Bailey) and Amy (Vanessa), daughters Shawna (James) Clemons, Alexis (James Sinohui) D'Angelo, and Abigail (Christian Johnson) D'Angelo; a step-son Mickell Ryan, a son Jason (Amber) Hoose and grandsons Aidan and Noah Sinohui and Gavin and Ander Hoose as well as a host of extended family.

A private celebration of life will be held for close family and friends at his residence. Arrangements by B.L. Bush & Sons, Camillus.

A recorded video of the celebration of life service is under the Photos and Video Tab below.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Cancer Society in Jerry's name at cancer.org/donate “ RIP Jerry. We were friends as kids on West Second St. at probably age 10 or less and got into trouble together a few times back in the day.

“ *Although I haven't seen Jerry in many years, our escapades are still fresh in my mind. I remember him, Dean and myself tooling around in his little blue Honda Civic, looking for adventure.
Please accept my sincere condolences for you family's loss, Rick Olson*
