“ Dear Beth and family. I was sad to hear about your dad / husband passing away. I guess we are getting to that age. It's such a tough time. Here's to hoping that the memories will make you smile. Chin up. I remember your dad Beth as a gentle giant. We were always afraid of him because he had such a tough exterior and then he'd be chuckling in the front seat of your car about something we'd tell him. I'm sure he will be missed.

“ We are so very sorry that we missed the calling hours of George and the opportunity to express our sympathies to his family. We did not know him, but we do know his daughter Gwen. A child is often the measure of a man or woman, and given the gracious and lovely woman he raised, George must have been a giant of a good man. Our prayers are with his family, whom we are sure George prays for himself, even while in the brilliant and wonderful light of his God and Christ. Please accept our most heartfelt and deepest sympathies.

“ I just missed by minutes the calling hours to personally express my deepest and sincerest sympathies on your loss. I've known George for many years as members of the NAA (now IMA). I was looking forward to our annual Past Presidents meeting this June 21st. He will certainly be missed by the group and me in particular. Please accept my condolences.
