“ So, so sorry we lost touch after we moved to the Capital District in 1982. Mom died in 1990, but you probably know that now. Scott grew up, went to college, married his hs sweetheart and had a son of his own. Something prompted me to search the internet for you tonight and here I found you. Rest well. You made a lot of people happy, mostly children, but never found the complete joy you were looking for yourself. Yoy never belueved that few people are truly happy all the time. Thats just the way life is, but now that your earthly life has passed, may you find eternal bliss in the arms of our savior.

“ Georgianna had such a beautiful soul. She always put the needs of others before herself. She brought so much joy to everyone she interacted with and was never hesitant to sing and dance to help put a smile on someone's face. We loved her very dearly and she will truly be missed.

“ I remember her thoughtfulness. She loved to dance she was very animated. She did not like snakes. Lol and if Jesse played ithe two Snake boogie and if he had that little imitation snake she would start crying. She sure will be missed. RIP. and pain free
