“ DEAR DR.HUNER, JANE AND FAMILY: As a patient of Dr. Huner's for as long as I can remember, I enjoyed the times we shared about our children and I knew the great love and devotion he and Jane had for theirs. His office was always decorated with family photos and I knew how dedicated and supportive he was to his family. The Lord is the healer of the brokenhearted and He draws near to comfort you. He is as close as your breath; lean upon Him for your strength during this difficult time. God Bless you and keep you and I will pray for you and Greg's children. They have a heavenly father that will watch over them and he promises to be the father - to the fatherless. Pat & Tom Eno and Erica & Michelle Volpe

“ I was shocked also to see Greg(Ede) has passed. I haven't seen him in about 20 yrs, highschool friends, but have thought of him many times, especially when I hear "FreeBird". "If I leave here tomorrow Would you still remember me? For I must be travelling on, now, There's too many places I haven't seen And if I stayed here with you, now Things just wouldn't be the same Well I'm as free as a bird now, And a bird you can not change. And a bird you can not change. And a bird you can not change. Lord knows I can't change Greg, your free now!! See ya on the other side!!

“ Greg, Even though it's been years since we last hung out, I will never forget the laughs that you brought to me. When ever I hear your name mentioned, my first thought would be you on your motorcycle. Your wit, charm and sense of "Huner" will be missed greatly. God Rest in Peace Greg, you are amongst angels now.

“ I would to express my sympathy for the entire Huner family. My husband lost a brother he truly loved. He has so many happy memories of him growing up and fishing together. My two boys Jack and Alec had an opportunity to spend Christmas with him in Florida. They went to Disney with him and I believe they will remember that for along time. They lost an uncle they never had enough time to get to really know. I know my husband Eric will tell them many stories about him so they always remember Greg. I believe Greg would only want love to come out of this sad time. So we should spend more time with our families and friends and celebrate the life he had.

“ I was deeply shocked and saddened to read of my old friends passing. Greg and I lost touch over the years but I never forgot him. You always believe that you will have time to catch up with good friends "later". It's a pity now that I'll never get that chance.

“ To the Huner Family; Greg was and will always be my best friend. When ever I needed anything ,anything at all he was there to help, he was a shoulder to cry on, someone to yell at, talk to all the time. I will miss that greg. God bless you., your family and your two daughters. I am SO very sorry for your loss. Greg you will be in my heart forever and ever.

“ To everyone who loved Greg, May you be at peace knowing that Greg is at peace now. I can relate to your grief as my sister, Sue, just passed away three weeks ago. Her death was very sudden as well. Greg has a beautiful family and many friends and I am sure his memory will live in all of our hearts and minds. His love of life made him a larger than life person. Because of his belief in the Lord I am sure we will meet again. I pray you find comfort until we reach the place where there are no more tears. God bless

“ To my family: Thank you for all being here for me. This is so very hard, and the realization that I can't see my daddy everyday as i had kills me slowly. I know that he loved life and loved his family with all his heart. There havn't been a lot of times when the whole family could get together, and I am trying to think that we aren't pulling together necessarily in just a time of crisis, moreso that we are all coming together because that's what my father would have wanted.

“ After many years having not seen Greg, I had the wonderful opportunity to share some time catching up and reminiscing with him during the 2004 holidays. Over this past year we enjoyed staying in touch via e-mail. I will miss checking my e-mail and looking forward to seeing one from Greg. Auntie Jane, Uncle Ziver, Tony, Rex, Eric, Melissa, and Jennifer... May God Bless you and give you peace and strength during this sad and difficult time. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ On fri 4/21 I first heard of this terrible news. It hurt deeply to know that I would not be able to see or talk to my brother again. I ironically had previously scheduled a trout fishing trip for this day in a local stream(first time in 20years), very much like the trout fishing greg and I had done in Marcellus 20years ago. I believe that Greg was there with me. Kind of a farewell brotherly fishing together forever bond. I caught a trophy 20" trout out of a small stream, 20 years later, the morning I find out about Greg. That doesn't happen! Gregs' way of saying "I'm ok brother". I love you too Greg. Take care Greg, you will not be forgotten Love, Eric

“ Many of my years were spent with Greg. I will hold dearly the good memories of us and the time I spent with his family. I sincerely hope that Greg has found the peace that he wanted so very much. Ziver, Jane, Tony, Rex & Eric; Please know that I am thinking of you all at this very difficult time. My daughter's Missy & Jen; my heart breaks for you both. I love you both with all of my heart and will continue to be at your side and help in any way that I can. Greg: God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; courage to change the things I can; and the wisdom to know the difference.

“ Greg will always have a special place in our hearts. He introduced us 39 years ago. May God's love be even stronger at this difficult time for our family. Turn your eyes upon Jesus, Look full in his wondrous face, And the things of earth will grow strangely dim In the light of His glory and grace.

“ I became acquainted with Greg through his brother Tony while attending Westhill high school. Although my time around Greg was relatively brief, memories of his smile and gentle demeanor left an everlasting impression. I was deeply saddened to learn of his untimely passing. May God bless his family.
