

Gunthar Carl Bauermann

August 28, 2003

Gunthar Carl "Jim" Bauermann, 83 formerly of Camillus died Thursday in Clearwater, FL. Born in Solingen, Germany he arrived in Ellis Island at age of five. He formerly worked at the Camillus Cutlery and served in Marine Corp for 25 years during WWII, Korean, and Vietnam wars. After his military career he worked as an investigator for Pinkerton Guards. Survived locally a former wife Margaret (DeSpirito) Bauermann of Camillus, by two daughters, Joyce Leski of Camillus and Connie Castellini of Solvay; three grandchildren Ronald Leski Jr., Michael Castellini, Lynn Normoyle; three great grandchildren, Amanda Leski, Clare Normoyle, Maeve Normoyle. Military Services were held September 1 in Clearwater, FL. Burial was in Bay Pines Cemetery, St. Petersburg. Contributions American Cancer Society, PO Box 7, E. Syracuse, NY 13057