“ I am Harold's surviving daughter that was not mentioned in the obituary. My father was taken away from me at a young age. To not mention me as his daughter is very painful to me. Just an FYI.

“ My sympathy to his surviving family. I have not been in contact with Harold for over 20 years. I just heard of his passing. I was his step-daughter from his previous marriage.

“ At a time like this it is difficult to find the right words to express your feelings in the loss of a friend. However, I wish to offer my sincere condolences. I was a grammar school classmate of Harold's as well as working at Onondaga Supply at the time Harold did, he was a great person as well as being respected. He will be greatly missed.
