

James G. Cohen

April 13, 1951 - August 17, 2016

James G. Cohen, 65, of Camillus passed unexpectedly Wednesday. Born in Plainfield, NJ he graduated from Kean College with a Bachelors of Arts in Political Science. Jim was a long time resident of Camillus and recently retired from the Insurance industry where he worked for 36 years. A private person with a wicked sense of humor, he was known for his Sunday Night Meatball Dinners with his family, who he loved dearly.

He is survived by his lovely wife of 10 years Patricia "Trish" Lowney; his sons, Daniel J. (Debbie) and Brian D. both of Camillus; his daughter Jessica L. (Annemarie Ross) of Rochester; his sister Nancy (John) Domzalski and his brother Howard (Monica) of NJ; and two beloved grandchildren, Margaret and Ryan. A caring father, a devoted grandfather and a wonderful husband, he will be truly missed.

Calling hours are 1 to 4 pm Saturday at B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, 10 Genesee St., Camillus.

Contributions in lieu of flowers may be made to the American Heart Assoc., PO Box 417005, Boston, MA 02241.

Please sign the guestbook at www.BLBUSH.com

“ I always joked with Jim that I wasn't sure if I loved him or hated him for giving me my start in this crazy insurance business. I also never missed an opportunity to tell him how grateful I was that he believed in me by offering me a job when I had no prior insurance experience, then he taught me the things I needed in order to be successful. I have tremendous admiration, respect and fondness for Jim. He was a great man of character, devotion and integrity. I will miss him greatly, and my heart breaks for your family in losing him far too soon. Cherish the memories, and God Bless you all.

“ My deepest sympathy to Trish, Danny and family, Jesse and Brian. I regret that I wasn't up to making the trip to Camillus. I will always cherish the memories of being Jim's brother-in-law. On the lighter side, thanks to Jim and his dad, Gene, I was introduced to Glenlivet, now one of my favorites. So Jim, this one's for you. John Domzalski

“ Dan, Brian and Jesse - worked for your Dad at both CNA and Peerless as his secretary. You were very small children back then. I don't need to tell you what a wonderful guy he was. There wasn't a day I worked for him that wasn't a joy. I also don't think a day went by that he failed to make me laugh. Over the years we lost touch, but he remains high on my list of great guys. My deepest sympathy to you and his wife.

I am so very sorry for your loss. Your dad was a giant, and the biggest SU Bball fan I have ever met. I will never forget how he was always there for you and your brothers growing up. He was hilarious and will be missed. My heart goes out to you, Trish, Dan, Brian, AnnMarie, Debbie and family. Thoughts and prayers from AZ. I am here anytime. He is your biggest angel now.

“ Sandy and I wish to express our profound sense of loss and sorrow at Jim's passing. Jim has been our friend for 47 years. He introduced us and was in our wedding party. Our son Corey's middle name, James is in honor of him. Although this is a moment of sadness, we do have great memories of playing trivial pursuit, the New York state fair and of course eating Jim's version of a continental breakfast, Buffalo wings and beer. We will always love him and never forget him. Sandy and George LoForte
