“ Jason is my best friend, but the Middaughs are my second family. I spent about half my weekends growing up there and Jim always went out of his way to make me laugh.

To Jean, Jason, John, Jill, and Joe - I'm really sorry for your loss.

“ A lot of people have already said what we feel collectively. Mr. Middaugh's humor and enthusiasm toward each and every one of us former students, kept us from ever being bored and constantly looking forward to attending his classes. Whenever I think of my times at EJD, he's right at the top. My condolences to his family.

“ Jimmy was a wonderful big brother and he will be missed by everyone that had the pleasure of knowing him! He has the sweetest and most loving family...our thoughts and prayers go out to Jean, John, Jason, Jill, Joe and all his beautiful grandchildren! Jimmy had such an expressive and funny personality and I loved chatting with him on the phone! I regret that we didn't get the chance to spend more time together...however, until we meet again...you will always be with me in spirit!!! God speed my sweet brother!

Mr. Middaugh was my Social Studies teacher in 8th grade. His teaching us about the Holocaust was a real eye opener for me about how humans can treat each other so bad. Over the years, I have read many books about the holocaust and survivors. I always felt that his teaching us about that was personal to him. He was my favorite teacher at E.J. D. I have a picture of him sitting on his desk playing the guitar and singing for us. My sincere sympathy to his Family. R.I.P Mr. Middaugh, you were one of the great teachers. Kimberlee Keener “ Jim should have been a stand up comedian! He was quick with a joke or a quip. He worked so long and hard for his family and its shows as he has such a great loving family. Jean, John, Jason, Jill, and Joe I am so sorry for the loss of your husband and your Dad. He was a great guy and I will miss him greatly. God Bless Jim.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Middaugh family. I was on of the lucky students who had Mr. Middaugh for History at EJD; I think he was my favorite History teacher. His classes were a blast and as result you learned even more. He was a wonderful person and will be missed. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers at this difficult time.

“ Hey guys,

I'm so sorry for your loss. Jim will definitely be missed. The best part of a Jane birthday party each year was getting there early and catching up with your dad in the kitchen before everyone else arrived. I'll never forget that crazy bus trip to the Yankees game with him either. Those were definitely some good times. All of you and your families will be in my thoughts.
