“ Thinking of you and your families today, of such good times at Jo Indian and Sand Lake. Janice sang Ava Marie at our wedding in New York City in January, 1967. I had heard her sing that at Fairmount Community Church when I was very young and asked her to sing it for us. It never occurred to me that she had to come from Syracuse to Queens early, find the church, make arrangements with the organist, and rehearse. It was as stunning as i remembered.
