“ Dear Cindy & Barb - What a beautiful picture of your mom - I think I remember it! Is that possible?? It's amazing to me the memories that come flooding to mind when someone we were close to passes. Like sitting on your garage roof on Barcroft smoking cigarettes...and the model house incident...and..oh well, too many to keep going! Just had to let you know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. I am sorry I can't make it to the calling hours. Love, Patty Ralston

“ Dear Barb and Cindy, I was saddened to read about your Mom's passing. I used to see her at some of the Town of Onondaga Historical Society events. I happened to be present on a house tour one year when she was humbly telling some Members about her "connection" to the Munro family, etc. – very very interesting and, of course, I secretly thought it was ultra cool that I knew her from "back in the day"! I'm sorry to say I only visited her once @ St. Camillus many years ago. She seemed to enjoy it there which (to me) reflected the care she was being given. She proudly went through all the family pictures on the wall with me. The staff seemed to genuinely enjoy her. Guess she made the best of her situation, which explained the coziness of her room and her ever-neat appearance. I hope she didn't have to suffer long, as she was a sweet, thoughtful lady. I also have vivid memories of frequenting your Richards Road house – and what a TREAT it was to be asked to stay for lunch after playing with all your toys and games during the morning hours – I remember your Mom had a certain way of standing – I especially remember her in the kitchen – hand on hip with her head crooked to one side, as if in contemplation of the situation (not that we were being bad or anything!)– and how she made totally awesome Campbell's tomato soup and PB&J's for us (the perfect lunch fare to a six year old!). I also remember how cool I thought it was to have your Grandmother live next door to you, as I so loved my very own Gramma! It would make me fantasize about having my Gramma live next door to me! Those were the days, huh? Again, Barb and Cindy - my sincere condolences for your loss – and please consider yourselves hugged – tightly. Sincerely, Pam Price (still)
