Jean Margaret Scandale, 81 of Camillus joined her husband, George, on the afternoon of August 5th, 2023. Born in Northampton, MA and raised by her parents Anna and Arthur Day, Jr.

“ I am so heart broken of the death of a family member Jean Scandale. When Jean married my 1st cousin George, she was an inspiration to me since I was young and she always would braid my hair for at Theas house on Strong Avenue. Her and I would talk about alot of factors in life. Jean had 2 beautiful babies Joanne and Florence,I was in my glory, I would watch them alot, and even when they started getting older 4 of us Joanne and Florence and Lisa would walk on Main Street and go into the McCallums building oh boy that was very interesting. Lisa wanted to take the manican home with her and we finally where able to have her realize it was not for sale.Jean was the love of our family I had alot of fun with her, also could she cook and make great Greek food and deserts, she taught me the tricks that she learned from our Thea.Jeanie and I talked alot the past 5 years about her health, and she loved to go to the casinos and Bingo she loved and went with a friend of hers Mrs Powers from Florence Mass. I will miss hearing her voice on the phone and may she rest in peace.in heaven. Jeanie is with her husband and grandson and aunties and uncles .Love you Jean and will miss your voice on the phone.
