“ John you were my oldest and dearest friend. So much of my life was enriched by our friendship and the laughter we shared - the cliffs and mountains we climbed, the beautiful forests we explored, and of course, the rock below Eagle's Cliff at Mohonk with its beautiful sunset view rolling into the west. You taught me to see the beauty of the light between the leaves, and how it would dance in the wind. The friendship we shared I will never forget, I loved you like a brother and you knew it. I will miss you. My deepest sympathies to your family and to Brenda.

“ John-I want you to know I will miss our little talks. You were such a kind and thoughtful person. You were like a son to me. God gave you a cross to carry and you did it with no complaints. I know he held out his arms to you and you are with him now, for a happier and peaceful life. I thought of you as another son and I will never forget you. I know you now have peace, Lou.
