

John P. Mayo

March 23, 2005

John P. Mayo 93, of Camillus died Wednesday. Born in Syracuse he graduated from Syracuse University in 1933 and worked as a Engineer for Crucible Specialty Metals for 43 years before retiring in 1976. He was predeceased by his wife Mary Jane in 2002 and his son Peter in 2004. John enjoyed designing and making his own furniture and spending time in the summer with his family at Ramona Beach. Survived by two daughters, Mary Ellen (David) Hoag of Camillus and Joanne (Richard) Henry of Oswego; a brother; four grandchildren, Susanna Mayo, Elizabeth Hoag, Margaret Henry and Daniel Henry.. Services are 4 pm Tuesday at St. Luke's Episcopal Church. Flowers are gratefully declined. Contributions may be made to St. Luke's Episcopal Church, 5402 West Genesee Street, Camillus, NY 13031. Arrangements by B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home, Camillus.

Tribute Wall

PM

“ My condolences to the family of John. I worked with John for many years in Engr. Dept. at Crucible and always admired him in how he conducted himself. I never heard a swear word or any demeaning remark about work or people he worked with. I would always remember with a chuckle, his "HOLY CAESAR" or another comment, "Son of a Bisquit". I enjoyed working with him and will remember him in my prayers. God love you John.

Peter Mulvihill - March 29, 2005 at 12:00 AM

MB

“ Please accept our condolences on the passing of your father, grandfather, and your friend. I wish that words alone could ease the pain that you feel right now. Know that John is in a far better place than we are. I pray that God gives your family the faith and strength that will help you see each other through what I know is a very sad time, and I also ask God to grant you the peace that also comes with John's journey "home"

Mike Bille - March 27, 2005 at 12:00 AM