

John W. Munro

December 9, 2003

John Willoughby Munro, 98 of Fayetteville died Tuesday. He was born to Fayette Smith Munro and Victoria Lowe in Lake Forest, IL on August 25, 1905. He was a graduate of Deerfield Shields High School in Highland Park, IL, Yale University and Harvard Law School. He was a former member of the law firm McDermott Will and Emory in Chicago, IL and Hancock & Estabrook in Syracuse. After retiring, he provided services to the Family Court as an arbitrator. He was a member of the American Bar Association, the New York and Illinois Bar Associations, and the Onondaga County Bar Association. For many years he was the Corresponding Secretary of his Yale University Class of '26. He has been a member of Dewitt Community Church for 35 years. He was also a member of the University Club, American Iris Society, and I.R.P. John was an avid gardener and outdoorsman and enjoyed fishing, sailing, and canoeing. Survived by his wife of 54 years Elizabeth "Betty"; two sons, Thomas B. of Fayetteville and John Q. of Evergreen, CO; two daughters, Elizabeth A. "Betsy" Munro of Madison, WI and Prudence Lewand of Aurora, CO; and several nieces, nephews and grandchildren. Services will be 11:00 am Monday, December 22 at DeWitt Community Church, 3600 Erie Blvd E., DeWitt. Arrangements by the B.L. Bush & Sons Funeral Home 10 Genesee St, Camillus. Burial will be in the spring at Maplewood Cemetery, Camillus.

Tribute Wall

JM

“ We are grieved to here of our great grandfather, and great,great grandfathers passing, and we continue to uphold the family in our prayers during there time of loss. John P. Munro and family

John Munro - December 16, 2003 at 12:00 AM